MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel

Chief, Medical Office
Auditor-in-Chief
Chief of Logistics
Chief, General Services

SUBJECT : Glossary of Intelligence Terminology

1. Copies of a proposed handbook entitled "Glossary of Intelligence Terminology" have been sent to all Agency components for concurrence, comments, and suggestions. Although this is of primary usefulness to Agency components actually engaged in intelligence work, we should not overlook the fact that CIA has developed many administrative terms having special significance.

2. I feel it would be a serious piece of oversight if the administrative components failed to participate fully in the development of a comprehensive Agency glossary. It is requested, therefore, that each component of the Office of the Deputy Director (Administration) respond fully and promptly with all actions requested in connection with the final review and rounding out of the Glossary.
